

CCRWriter

This handout contains print screens from the website.

The CCRiwriter is available at:

<http://www.ccriwriter.com/>

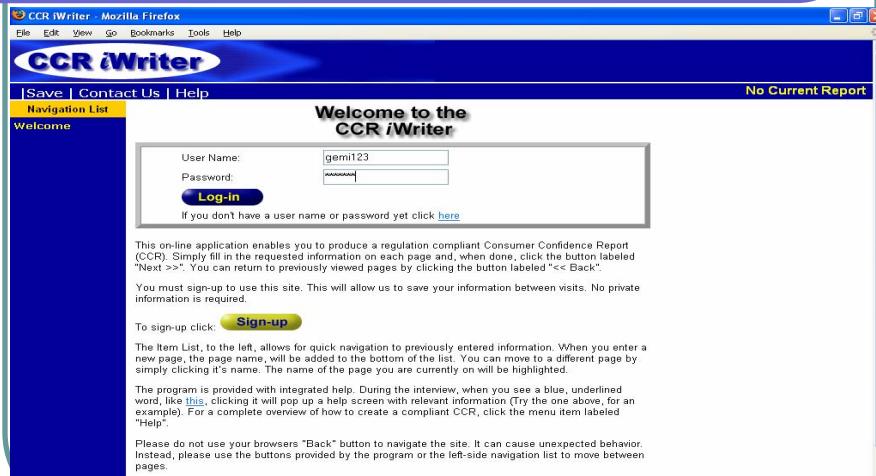

Or you can request a I-writer CD by calling the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (1-800-426-4791)

1

Remember!!! The CCRiwriter meets all federal CCR requirements. It is your responsibility to know your state requirements.

Enter New Contaminant

UCMR

Additional Contaminants

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled 'CCR iWriter - Mozilla Firefox'. The page has a blue header with the 'CCR iWriter' logo and navigation links: 'Save', 'Contact Us', and 'Help'. A status bar at the top right says 'Current Report - CCR Web cast'. On the left is a blue sidebar with a 'Navigation List' containing links: 'Welcome', 'Existing Reports', 'System Information', 'Multiple Water Sources', 'Contaminant Information', 'UCMR Information', 'Additional Contaminants', 'Cryptosporidium Monitoring', and 'Monitoring'. The main content area is titled 'Additional Contaminant Information' and asks: 'Are there any additional required contaminants you would like to report?'. There are two radio buttons: 'Yes' (selected) and 'No'. Below the buttons are '<< Back' and 'Next >>' buttons. At the bottom, a small note states: 'This program has been developed by the EPA. For further information contact Chris.Lisa@gmail.com at the EPA.'

Cryptosporidium

The screenshot shows the same web browser window as the previous slide, but the main content area is titled 'Cryptosporidium Monitoring'. It asks: 'Did the system monitor for Cryptosporidium?'. There are two radio buttons: 'Yes' and 'No' (selected). Below the buttons are '<< Back' and 'Next >>' buttons. The same footer note about EPA development is present.

Radon

The screenshot shows the CCR iWriter web application in a Mozilla Firefox browser window. The page title is "CCR iWriter" and the URL is "Current Report - CCR Web cast". The navigation menu on the left includes: Welcome, Existing Reports, System Information, Multiple Water Sources, Contaminant Information, UCMR Information, Additional Contaminants, Cryptosporidium Monitoring, and Radon Monitoring (highlighted). The main content area is titled "Radon Monitoring" and contains the question "Did the system monitor for Radon?". Below the question are two radio buttons: "Yes" and "No". At the bottom of the form are two buttons: "<< Back" and "Next >>". A footer note states: "This program has been developed by the EPA. For further information contact Lisa Christ (Christ.Lisa@epa.gov) at the EPA."

Voluntary Monitoring

Compliance with Other Rules

The screenshot shows the CCR iWriter web application in a Mozilla Firefox browser. The page title is "Compliance with Other Rules". The left sidebar contains a "Navigation List" with the following items: Welcome, Existing Reports, System Information, Multiple Water Sources, Contaminant Information, UCMR Information, Additional Contaminants, Cryptosporidium Monitoring, Radon Monitoring, Voluntary Monitoring, and Compliance with Other Rules. The main content area has a heading "Compliance with Other Rules" and a paragraph: "If the water system violated any of the rules described on the next two pages during the year covered by the report, your CCR must describe the violation(s). Just as you must explain the potential health effects of any MCL violation, you must provide a clear and readily understandable explanation of any other violation, potential adverse health effects (if any), and the steps the system has taken to correct the violation." Below the paragraph are two buttons: "<< Back" and "Next >>". At the bottom, there is a small text: "This program has been developed by the EPA. For further information contact: Chris.Lisa@epamail.epa.gov at the EPA."
